ECHO ELECTIONS CLOSE

Returns From Balloting on Wednesday Surprising in Many Respects.

In a contest in which "dark horses" charged fearlessly forward and snatched honors from the favorite candidates, the Echo elections brought joy to some and grief to others as to the opinion of their fellow-students concerning them. Haley Settle stood out prominently in the balloting, capturing three first places, while, among the women, Margaret Tuthill held sway with two firsts and a second.

The voting on all-around college man quickly brought two candidates to the fore, Haley Settle and Charlie Duke. When the tellers had finally wiped the grime from fevered brows after this vote it was found that Settle had a comfortable lead. Among the women a greater diversity of opinion prevailed as to their best representative, Barksdale pushing Flippo and Tuthill for a place on the list. On the final count the last were granted the blue and red ribbons, respectively.

Football Vote Close.

The contest for best football player was one that will long be remembered by the tellers, for never before this election has the selection of an outstanding star been so difficult. "Monk" White and "Bake" Jones soon outstripped all the others in the balloting, and until the very end the result was in doubt. Six recounts were taken in checking the vote, which at last was found to be 101-100, Monk having the one vote advantage. The Siamese twins certainly monopolized this event.

Best basketball player narrowed down to a race for positions between Pierce, Cooke and Jones, the first two landing the coveted places. In the voting for best baseball player, Captain Settle soon piled up an overwhelming lead, with Chandler, Lowe, and Cooke fighting it out for second place. They finished in the order named.

The dancers in Tyler all received a varying number of votes, but popular opinion was that the two most expert exponents of the art of the Goddess Diana were Margaret Tuthill and Mary Nash Tatem. Flippo and Youell were runners up and were not counted out until the last vote had been counted. The most prominent shakers of the wicked sock among the men were adjudged to be Carlisle Johnson, amateur postmaster, and his dignity, Bill Christian. Eddie Huffman, Swain and Schenck pursued the leaders in the order named.

Most popular man was an office on which voting was rather light and very much scattered. The places were finally gained by Settle and Bland respectively. Most popular girl was also a matter of doubt to the very last, when Tuthill and Mary Wadsworth put forth an extra spurt and landed with the tape.

"Deke" the Eccentric.

"Deke" Johnson landed the position of most eccentric man in a walkaway, as had been prophesied, but it was

INDIANS ROUT SPIDERS

Team Rolls Up Largest Score in Years Against Ancient Rivals.

William and Mary's quint, showing its best form this season, decisively defeated University of Richmond five here Saturday last by a margin of twenty-five points, the score being 45 to 20.

The victory over the Spiders was foreshadowed in the teamwork displayed against Camp Eustis. Such passing and accurate goal shooting, combined with close guarding, has not been seen in the local gym in recent years. The Indians played as a unit, whereas the Spiders fell down in general floor work.

In the first half the splendid caging ability of Pierce and Cooke, each of whom rung up five baskets, gave William and Mary a commanding lead. Jones tossed a goal, too, and Cooke contributed three foul goals during this period, making the Indians' total twenty-five points. Ziegler accounted for all of Coach Dobson's points the first twenty minutes of play, by making two field goals and basketballing six foul goals in eight attempts.

Richmond Has One-Man Offensive.

Offensively, the Spiders proved a one-man team in the opening stanza. In the closing chapter Mottley contributed four field goals, and Ziegler added two points more from the foul line. Thus the Spiders scored six points less against the Indians than Randolph-Macon scored here two weeks ago.

Cooke Scintillates for W. & M.

Cooke, in the second half, added four goals more to his collection, giving him nine baskets as an evening's work. Some of his shots were sensational. Just as Captain Pierce, against Camp Eustis, played the best game of his life, so did Alva Cooke uncork his greatest performance against the Richmond quint. He followed up his shots, and was everywhere on the floor.

Harwood, by making three goals, and Bake Jones, with two long shots resulting in baskets, aided materially in turning what started out to be a contest into a rout. One of Jones' baskets was the result of a shot two-thirds the distance of the court.

Once the Indians struck their stride, the Spiders became bewildered. William and Mary Saturday last probably would have defeated any opponent of average strength. Coach Dobson, commenting on the outcome, said the result showed too plainly that his team had been hopelessly outclassed.

Fighting Spirit Predominates.

As is always the case whenever the Indians and Spiders meet, the audience was frenzied. Fighting spirit was in the atmosphere, and the enthusiasm of the large audience stirred the participants deeply.

Young put up a splendid game at stationary guard, and Jones rendered yeoman service on the defensive, as well as making six points himself. Harwood's floor work was hard to

GIRLS GALORE!

Many Fair Visitors Lend Variety to the Hops and Afford Relaxation from Exams.

Last week-end with its three dances and glorious victory over Richmond College will linger long in the memory of the dancing element in the student body. Despite rather unfavorable weather conditions a fair sized crowd was present in the Dining Hall on Thursday night when the god of the terpsichorean art assumed command of the premises. From then on until 12 o'clock Saturday night he proved a relentless master to all who opposed his war cry of "On with the dance!"

The Dining Hall presented an unusual and attractive appearance to the forty-five or more couples present Thursday night. Under the ingenious and inventive direction of Bill Christian decorations were arranged in a manner somewhat out of the ordinary, and the popularity of the scheme lends credence to the old adage that "Variety is the spice of life." Instead of the usual streamers the decorations were confined to the individual fixtures, giving a simple but effective method of decoration.

While the strains of the All-Stars did not measure up to the product of the Pied Pipers, the music was, on the whole, as good as could be expected, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. Many visiting girls were present on Friday and Saturday nights, lending charm and attraction to the occasion. The dance in the gymnasium on Saturday night, while somewhat crowded, proved to be a feature event, and was in no way an anticlimax as had been feared. Indeed, more pep seemed to be in evidence at that dance than at either of the others, due possibly to the fact that it occurred after a successful basketball game. The Spider team members were the guests of honor on this occasion and every effort was made to see that they enjoyed themselves.

BRITISH CONTRIBUTION

Lady Astor Gives Her "Bit" to the Endowment Fund.

That the endowment drive now being carried on by the supporters of the college is attaining tremendous proportions is shown by the contributions which are coming in from all parts of the country. The first foreign contribution was recently announced by the college authorities. It amounted to $500 and came from Lady Nancy Astor.

In a letter to the committee written from Clivdon, Taplow, England, Lady Astor expresses best wishes for the success of the movement to re-endow William and Mary, at which place some of her ancestors were students, and concludes her letter as follows:

"I hope that you will soon receive all the contributions that you will need to establish your fund of $1,000,000. With all good wishes,

Yours very truly,

NANCY ASTOR.

CO-EDS MEET DEFEAT

Indianettes Drop Contest to Y. W. C. A. and Fredericksburg Normal.

The first trip of the girls' basketball team was disastrous in the scores, which were: Richmond Y. W. C. A., 84; William and Mary, 8; Fredericksburg Normal, 46; William and Mary, 9. These teams had been organized and some of the members playing together for years.

The first game against Richmond Y. W. C. A. was a hard fought one. It was signalized by its emphasis on technicalities and the brilliant teamwork of the Richmond girls. Miss Whittaker and Miss Davis made the W. & M. center its most powerful point of opposition.

The Indian lineup was:

Forwards—Flippo (Capt.), Garrison.

Centers—Davis (side center), Whittaker (jumping center).

Guards—Smith, Fraughnaugh.

Substitutions—Wadsworth for Fraughnaugh, Barksdale for Smith, Davis for Whittaker and Gibbons for Davis.

Scores—Flippo, 4; Garrison, 4.

The Fredericksburg game was filled with interest and enjoyment, but the damper of ill-fate was felt at the sight of a court twice the size of the home one. This, however, was not the cause of downfall, but rather the singular occurrence of two sisters and a cousin on the Normal team whose skill and co-operation was marvelous. With the two sisters outplaying the William and Mary center, the sextet was baffled for the first half, but in the last held the opponents to an even score. Could the last have been first, the first would not have been.

The lineup was the same as above, with no substitutions.

Scores—Garrison, 8; Flippo, 1.

We wait to name the stars against Fredericksburg in the home game next week. Let's get 'em!

TEAM LEAVES ON TRIP

Four-Day Excursion to Richmond and Vicinity Winds Up Successful Season.

The William and Mary basketballers left today on their last trip of the season. They probably will not return until Thursday.

Tonight the Indians clash with the fast Medical College of Virginia five in Richmond. It is a toss up as to which team shall win, as wiseacres figure them to be evenly matched. The Sawbones will find Coach Driver's quint much better than last year's five.

Randolph-Macon quint will be played at Ashland Monday night, and on Tuesday night at Westhampton the Indians meet the Spiders in a return match. The outcome of this contest will be awaited with keen interest. Playing on a larger court, with which they are familiar, and spurred on by the University of Richmond student body, the Spiders promise to make things interesting for our smooth machine.

IN THE WIGWAM

TEAM TRIMS EUSTIS

Driverites Hard Pushed in First Half But Come Back Strong in Second.

Displaying a combination of fighting spirit, passing and goal shooting that dismayed their heavier opponents, William and Mary's quint defeated the Camp Eustis five in the local gym on February 10 by a 41-17 score.

The first half found the Indians leading the soldiers by only six points, the count being 16 to 10. During this time the guarding was exceptionally close, and the play rough. The roughness was not intentional, rather, it was the outward manifestation of the hard, driving game played by each quint.

Five field goals by Captain Chet Pierce accounted for ten of the Indians' sixteen points during the first twenty minutes of play. Determined to develop teamwork during the second half the Indians proceeded to make good with a vengeance. Pierce added four goals more to his string, Hudson and Hicks, substitutes, each contributed two goals, Bake Jones rang the bell three times without touching a rim, and Harwood and Cooke each caged a basket.

Passing Game Improves.

The great improvement shown by William and Mary in the final half was due to better passing, and the smooth teamwork was reflected in the mounting score. From a nip and tuck battle the contest became a rout. There was no stopping Coach Driver's basketballers. They played rings around the military five, which had trimmed Newport News Shipyard and the Hampton Legion quint by healthy majorities.

Replete with fight from start to finish, the game was thrilling to the capacity audience that packed and jammed its way into the modest gymnasium.

Pierce Runs Wild.

Pierce's stellar playing was the outstanding feature. This lanky son of Alexandria (Va.) chose a matinee date as the vehicle for a brilliant performance. Without causing Webster great anguish, it may be jotted down that Chet's floor game was superb, his passing excellent, and his goal shooting all that could be asked.

Black Shines for Eustis.

For Camp Eustis Black shot nine foul goals in eleven attempts, which is a sweet batting average in any league. It would not be amiss to comment on the ability of Referee Doerman, of Harvard, who kept the boys going at top speed, and made them play according to basketball rules. He is a splendid official.

BASEBALL PRACTICE HAS STARTED

Eppa Rixey Takes Charge of Large Squad.

Eppa Rixey, southpaw pitcher of the Cincinnati National League club, arrived Tuesday night, and on Wednesday had his first workout with the battery candidates.

Mr. Rixey, whose great pitching at the University of Virginia won him a berth with the Phillies, by whom he was recently traded to the Reds, is a genial, cultured gentleman who has as many friends as Warren G. Harding. A smile that lights up a prepossessing countenance is one of Eppa's best assets. He is of the type that professional baseball needs, in order to make it a cleaner game.

It is a matter of gratification to the students and alumni of William and Mary that Mr. Rixey is giving his experience to the Indians' baseball squad. He may have to leave around March 1 to go South with the Cincinnati club, but it is certain that the team will benefit by his coaching, even though his stay is limited.

The star portpaw easily has the distinction of being the tallest man on the campus. Some bird thought he was Jess Willard in disguise. Be that as it may, the students and alumni are glad to welcome Mr. Rixey to William and Mary, and hope that he will visit us again.

The call for the entire squad was issued Thursday, in response to which a horde of ambitious youngsters poured onto Cary Field. Baseball is on in earnest!

SCRUBS REGISTER VICTORY

Second Team Swamps Five From Hampton High School.

Coach Copeland, of Hampton High, last year a familiar figure on the William and Mary campus, led his quintet of ambitious youngsters into the Indian lair last Friday to encounter our papooses. While all expectations were that the second team would score a decided victory it was hardly expected that they would roll up a score of 53-8.

Scrubs Have Little Trouble.

The whole second team, while suffering from a lack of experience playing together, put up a fast game until the score became decidedly one-sided, after which they took their own good time about doing anything, much to the disgust of the spectators. But, taking everything into consideration, we cannot expect the scrubs to field the ball like the varsity and, to do them justice, they put up a creditable game.

Hudson Stars.

E. D. Hudson proved the best on offense, while Piggy Pierce's guarding put a bit of ginger and fight into the game. Ed played his first game at center, and judging from results his new environment agreed with him, for many a time and oft did the net click as a result of his eagle eye. He was easily the outstanding star of the game. It is to be regretted that a more complete schedule was not prepared for the scrubs, for they seem to have material for a strong quint.

The lineup:

W. & M. Hampton
Scrubs (53). Po. High (8).

Hicks ..... left forward ..... Gold.

Hatcher ..... right forward ..... Hunt

Hudson ..... center ..... Taylor

Pierce ..... right guard ..... Burke

Summary: Field goals—Hatcher,

7; Hicks, 6; Hudson, 11; Dietz, 2;

Gold, 2; Hunt, 1. Fouls—Hatcher,

Hunt, 2. Substitutions—William and

Mary—Dietz, Hundley. Hampton—

Burke, Alexander, Lauranne.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Guess we couldn't have asked for better results than we got Saturday night, eh, what? "Remember Norfolk" was the cry of the evening. And the score took some of the sting out of that 13-0 calamity.

We compliment the Spiders on their good spirit and gentlemanly conduct on the floor. As a suggestion to Towill we might say for future reference, "Don't horse Bake!" Aside from that momentary slip the conduct of the Spider team was gentlemanly in the extreme.

There was a big B around our basket in the form of Bake and Buck that the Spider forwards couldn't penetrate. Might as well have been a barbed wire cage!

quite a surprise that his successor should be none other than the editor of our annual, "Socks" Moorman. Think they must have framed it on him!

Chet a Tobacco Bum.

In the race for the rather doubtful honor of being the most expert at drawing "smokes" from unwilling hands, Chet Price held a strong lead. Chet was favored in pre-election dope for he was excelled in this department last year by only one man, Turner Henley. First place being vacant, it was Chet's by inheritance, and "Tommy" Thompson stepped forth to take the second place made vacant by Chet's promotion.

The vote on handsomest man was very light, many ballots containing the sentence, "Ain't no such animal!" Of those that did vote a plurality cast ballots for the perfect (?) features and broad shoulders of Flicky Harwood. The retiring slender type which Mac Bridges represents was next in popularity. The voting on prettiest girl led to something almost unheard of in the history of Echo elections, a tie vote. The Wadsworth sisters, Louise Waters and Mabel Stratton were the strongest candidates from the start, but in the final results the two Tarheel girls proved to be unbeatable. What do you know about North Carolina? Maybe they will bring along another one next year to settle this argument. But we sincerely hope that this mooted questionnaire will lead to no verbal disputes.

As an ideal professor "Bobby" Gooch commanded a comfortable margin, his nearest opponent being A. G. Williams. Bedsall had little difficulty in landing a job as greenest "duc," although he didn't get all the votes. No, no—Doyle, Jenkins, and Wright polled heavily—and one must have seen Russell Stuart's gloomy countenance in the last few days; the explanation is that two people did him the grave injustice of scratching his name opposite that despised epithet. And the worst of it is that several people, after being at William and Mary for five months, cast votes for Cline, Fulcher, and Purcell. Even if they look like green "ducs" on first sight these voters should know better by this time.

The ability to snatch "dills" is best developed in Burfoot and Zirkle, in the exact proportion of two to one. Despite that some, engrossed in ignorance, thought that we were referring to football and voted for Close and Garber. Bob Harper had little opposition in landing a first in heftiest "line." Moorman pursued him closely but was unable to overcome a natural disadvantage.

Tighty Lives Up to Name.

Two hereditary places were recaptured by "Tighty" Moore and Walter Chisholm. Tighty had no trouble in getting tightest man, though Pinkey Owen did run a good race for awhile, but Walter Chisholm had to wrest his place from Custis, Swain and Nottingham.

Flippo and Bake Best Athletes.

Two other places deserve comment, Flippo being chosen most athletic girl by a heavy margin, with Martha Barksdale second. As the most athletic man, little Bake Jones was the outstanding figure, scoring more cotes than all of his rivals combined. Alva Cooke ran a second to the white-headed marvel. ABOUT THE ROGERS*MEMORIAL

William and Mary to Erect a Science Hall Which Will Be Dedicated to Famous Alumnus.

The proposal of William and Mary to erect a Science Hall in memory of William Barton Rogers has aroused a flood of comment among men of science throughout the United States. For what American man whose interests are at all of a scientific turn, has not heard of this name, which in its day was acclaimed as the Nestor of American geologists? Indeed the proposed memorial must be of intense interest to the alumni of Massachusetts Tech, as it should be to geologists all over the country.

For William Barton Rogers, one of those illustrious names which William and Mary will always be proud to place on her list of alumni, was the founder of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It was chiefly due to his influence and persuasion that the legislature of Massachusetts passed a measure setting aside land in Boston and making other necessary provisions for the great technical school which is today admittedly the leader in its field in America. Rogers, the eloquent and brilliant alumnus and professor at William and Mary, was the first president of Boston Tech, and devoted the last years of his life to her service.

One of Four Brothers.

William Barton Rogers was one of the four "Brothers Rogers" as they were called, who were the leaders in the fields of science and medicine in the generation immediately following the Civil War. All four were educated at William and Mary, and each proved a worthy son of the alma mater of Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler. It is doubtful if any other college in America can produce from its alumni records a similar quartet of brothers, each of whom was a leader in the scientific world. Their interest in scientific matters was natural, for the father of the quartet,

Dr. Patrick Kerr Rogers, a North Ireland product, was professor of natural philosophy and chemistry at William and Mary for many years.

Received Early Training at W. & M.

That surveying was well taught at William and Mary, even in those early days, is evidenced by the very excellent survey of the State of Virginia contributed by William Barton Rogers. It will be remembered that George Washington received from this college his first public office of surveyor.

Before he founded "Tech" Dr. Rogers had attained a pinnacle of prominence among contemporary scientists. While a professor at the University of Virginia, he completed, in connection with his brother Henry, a paper on the structure of the Appalachian chain, which was the first presentation of what is known as the "Wave Theory of Mountain Chains." The work was an exceedingly important contribution to geological history in North America.

Both William and Mary and Harvard conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Laws; he was elected the first president of the American Association for the Promotion of Social Science, as well as to the presidency of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He was also president of the National Academy of Sciences. The Museum of Fine Arts at Boston was said to have been evolved from the plan put through by Dr. Rogers in 1860.

The appropriateness of a memorial at William and Mary to the father of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, as he was called, is obvious. In a letter to Henry D. Rogers he once referred to William and Mary as "the spot where we first caught the inspiration of science."

First Science at William and Mary

It is interesting to trace the influence of William and Mary upon the life of William Barton Rogers and its reflection in the creation of the Massachusetts Institute. At William and Mary was given the first course of study in physical science in any American college.

Students at William and Mary in the period when he was a student—about 1820—in their science work used the physical apparatus which had been purchased in England for the college by Dr. William Small, the professor of natural philosophy and mathematics, in the eighteenth century.

In view of all this, now that William and Mary feels the need of an entirely new scientific equipment, what more natural, its friends say, than to ask the friends of American education to contribute toward a William Barton Rogers memorial science hall on the spot where the great geologist and the rest of the "Brothers Rogers" first caught the inspiration of science?

excel, and the forwards, Cooke and Pierce, never showed to better advantage. For the Spiders Mottley and Ziegler were the outstanding stars.

Scrubs Relieve Regulars.

Toward the close, Coach Driver sent in his substitutes, to give them practice under fire. The overwhelming victory atoned for the three-point margin victory achieved by the Spiders here last year, after three extra periods were required.

Cooke has been undergoing treatment this week for an inflamed leg.
It is thought he will be able to don a uniform again on Tuesday night, when the Indians will beard the Spiders in their own den at Westhampton.

AT THE PALACE
WEEK ENDING FEB. 26

MONDAY

MARY MILES MINTER IN "SWEET LAVENDER"

With Mary Miles Minter as the star, supported by a really exceptional cast, Realart will present a film version of "Sweet Lavender" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero for Monday.

TUESDAY

"Excuse My Dust," with Wallace Reid featured, will hold the place of honor on the bill of the Palace Theater Tuesday. The style of picture comedy that this Paramount-Artcraft star has been offering in his past releases has won him a firm place in the hearts of local fans. The story of this picture offers him the opportunity of appearing in another high-speed comedy—one similar to a previous release, "The Roaring Road."

WEDNESDAY

IT REALLY HAS NEW IDEA

It has remained for Marshall Neilan, the youthful director-genius of the motion picture industry, to bring forth a picture that would combine the elements of a deep scientific present-day question with a plot that holds human interest as its fundamental objective.

In its announcement setting the date for the showing of "Go and Get It," states that the production centers about the successful operation of a surgeon in transplanting the brain of a human into the skull of a gorilla. The newspaper angle is related to the story by virtue of the fact that a newspaper reporter, with instructions of his city editor to "go and get it" is credited with the solving of the mystery.

Those who appear in the cast are: Wesley Barry, Pat O'Malley, Agnes Ayres, J. Barney Sherry, C. Mailles, Noah Beery, Bull Montana, Walter Long, Lydia Titus, George C. Dromgold, Ashley Cooper and Charles West.

THURSDAY

KATHERINE MacDONALD in
"MY LADY'S LATCH KEY"

FRIDAY

BOTH MARRIED AND UNMARRIED WILL LAUGH

A departure from Mack Sennett Comedy tradition is promised in the Comedy King's latest five-reel super-production, "Love, Honor and Behave," the First National attraction at the Palace Theater on Friday.

SATURDAY

Tom Mix, the daredevil Fox star, has been announced as the attraction at the Palace Theater for Saturday in what is declared to be the most fitting picture of the Mix type of prowess seen in many months. The picture, entitled "The Untamed," is an adaptation of Max Brand's novel of the same name.

NOTE:—All shows next week, 25c, including war tax.
